- Where all kinds of people serve God in all kind of ways.
- We dream of a multi-cultural church that reflects the racial makeup of our community.
- A church where God's word is taught with expectation and relevance and obeyed with passion.
- Where the preaching is biblical and practical.
- We dream of a church where marriages are healed and parer hearts are turned toward their children.
- Where kids and students grow strong in the Lord and stand for Him without apology.
- We dream of a church where grace is accepted and extended.
- Where love for people springs from love for God.
- Where joy permeates the air.
- Where service is a privilege not a burden.
- We dream of a church where people meet a real God, experience real change and discover real answers.
- Where destructive lifestyles, habits, and addictions are overcome.
- Where wasted lives are retrieved and new beginnings are launched.
